EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Surinder Sachar on 02 November 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 38 is cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 40, 53, 56, 58, 60, 75 and 80-91 are allowed over the Prior Art of record.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reasons for allowance of independent claims 40, 53, 56, 58, 60 and 89-91 is the inclusion of the specific limitation of employing a plurality of projectiles launched from a launch apparatus with precisely controlled timing (emphasis added) in an apparatus and/or method for measuring frequency characteristics of a direct current acceleration sensor. As to claims 80-82, the primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of the specific limitation of employing/including a projectile having a structure that is a lamination of different materials (emphasis added) to control a frequency band of the elastic wave pulse generated in a metal rod by the impact of the projectile. As to claims 83-88, the primary reasons for allowance is the inclusion of the specific limitation of obtaining transient signal distortion of an elastic wave pulse from a strain gauge output signal incident on one end surface and at least a primary (i.e. leading) term of a series-expanded Skalak's analytic solution. None of the Prior Art disclose these specific limitations in regards to testing/measuring acceleration sensors.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
